STITCH CHAIR

STITCH CHAIR Adam Goodrum 2008

The Stitch Chair is nothing less than clever. This foldable chair, made of aluminum and finished in polished lacquer, can lean against a wall as an impressive silhouette, or neatly stored.
