

A modern, light green upholstered armchair is the central focus, positioned in a rustic room. To its left is a small, round, copper-colored side table with a thin central leg and a circular base. On the table sits a white ceramic fruit basket filled with red apples and a stack of three books. The room features aged, grey stone walls with decorative carvings and a window on the left. The floor is made of large, irregular stone tiles. The lighting is soft and directional, coming from the window.
