CAMPOMETROQUADRO COLLECTIONdesigned by Leonardo Talarico*

Campo collection designed by Leonardo Talarico.

A design which plays with the idea of superimposed layers and which was inspired from a bird's-eye view of wheat fields, hence the name "Campo", which in Italian means field. A playful rug that combines a low flatweave, a high-pile and a clever design creating the effect that there are two rugs overlapping, but doesn't let your eyes deceive you, it is one rug.

LEONARDO TALARICO

Leonardo Talarico (Milan, 1988) is an Italian designer.

His approach to design is a work of severe reduction that aims to highlight a very subtle personal trace focused on giving importance to the smallest details left.

Case da Abitare magazine included him between the "15 Italian Talents under the age of 35", Para Ti Deco inserted him as 1 of the 5 International Young designers that will improve our lives with their projects.

He worked with prestigious firms of design industry such as Cappellini, Tod's, Mercedes-Benz, Alcantara, Henry Timi and his products were presented during the Design Week in Milan, Paris, London and New York.

"I design to innovate, my approach to the project is essential. I create objects whose essence is a simple and sophisticated soul. My lines come from small insights. Common thread is -less is more- eliminating the unnecessary. I have a vision, I insist to stay."
