OLDIE LIGHT

OLDIE COLLECTION
designed by cc-tapis design-lab

Beauty in simplicity, thick undyed Himalayan wool is knotted onto a colorful cotton warp. The knots are cut at random by the artisans causing some knots to open whilst others remain closed. The color of the cotton is diffused through the natural and warm colors of the wool, more evident where the knots have remained closed and less visible where the knots are open. Creating a beautifully random and worn-down effect which gives the collection its name.
